Sherpa Report – May 17, 2012

“They’ve [The Ritz-Carlton Club, Vail] taken the typical alpine look and created something more elegant than a plaid-log motif. It’s rustic, homey, but still upscale and Bavarian... The Lobby Bar is really cozy and is a great place to have a glass of wine after a long day of activities. The Great Room has large windows that offer a great view, comfortable furniture, fireplace and library.”
